Our Lord's Cross was the final victory over sin and death. Victory was and is always there for our taking, yet sin and death are still hard at work to keep us from truly experiencing the freedom Christ has brought us. So many of the things that keep us in bondage are hidden deep in our hearts. We struggle mightily with anxiety, fear, anger, and other negative emotions, but we are at a complete loss as to why they're there in the first place!

Before we can be truly set free, we must have eyes to see what's at the root of our problems. Healing of the Heart Prayer helps to guide the hurting to the root of their pain and to expose the lies of the enemy which hold us bound. By healing the areas of our hearts that have not yet come into agreement with God's truth, we experience the true freedom that He intended us to have and the victory to overcome defeat.

At the same time, the Devil is very steeped and active in our culture leading many into occult bondage. It is important for us to correctly discern his activity through the Holy Spirit's guidance in order to destroy the enemy's strongholds and set the captives free.

Please join Missionaries of the New Evangelization this August as we grow together in Christ and His Healing Ministry.

Topics of this year's Conference:

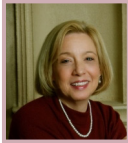

- The Extravagant Love of God in Healing of the Heart Prayer
- How to Minister Healing of the Heart Prayer
- How Healing of the Heart Prayer Can Help Pastors
- The Biblical Background of our Understanding of Demons
- How Evil Spirits Enter a Person's Life
- How to Get Free from Demonic Oppression
- Mind Control and Cults
- The Power & Authority of Our Relationship In Christ
- Neopagan Spirituality and Goddess Worship
- Necromancy, Mediums and False Prophets
- Exposing Occult Societies and their Leadership
- Discerning Cursed Places, Objects and People

Fr. Dennis McManus is a priest of the Archdiocese of Mobile, AL. From 1997-2006, he worked as Ass. Director of the Secretariat for the Liturgy at the USCCB. Pope JP II named him as consultor and theologian to Vox Clara Commission on the Liturgy. He has written extensively on the Roman Rites of Exorcism. He has served as Pastoral Coordinator for the Archdiocese of New York in Deliverance & Exorcism for three years. He now serves as a Professor in Jewish Civilization at Georgetown University and Systematic Theology at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD.

Monica Hernandez has been involved in ministry for 28 years. She founded Led By the Spirit Ministries in 1995 and has organized, facilitated and spoken at retreats, conferences and trainings in the Archdiocese of Denver and Colorado Springs. In 2013 she became a full time missionary with the Missionaries of the New Evangelization and has ministered nationally and internationally when she went to Uganda, Rwanda, Canada and Israel. She currently trains and ministers in Healing of the Heart prayer. Her greatest desire is to lead others to experience God's healing love and mercy and into intimate relationship with Him.

Susan Brinkmann is a Catholic author and award-winning journalist. She serves as Director of Communications & New Age Research for EWTN's Women of Grace. Over the last ten years she has created the largest New Age blog of its kind in the world. This library of information now exceeds 1200 entries on everything from acupuncture and angels to witchcraft and yoga. She is a member of the 3rd Order of Discalced Carmelites and has devoted her life to building up the Church and tearing down the culture of death.

Fr. Greg Bramlage is the President and Founder of Missionaries of the New Evangelization, an international apostolate of prayer and teaching in Evangelization and Deliverance Ministry. He has evangelized at Parish Missions and Conferences throughout the U.S., Africa, India, Central and South America. He has served in the Deliverance Ministry since 1996, helping priests, religious and laity receive freedom from Demonic Oppression. He is headquartered in the Diocese of Colorado Springs and is currently working to build a Center for Prayer and the New Evangelization. His website is mnehealing.org
