

“Alongside the commission to exorcise, Matthew adds the mission to heal. The Twelve are sent “to heal every disease and every infirmity” (Mt 10:1). Healing is an essential dimension of the apostolic mission and of Christian faith in general... In the miracles of healing, God displays his gracious power over the world. They are essentially “signs” that point to God himself and serve to set man in motion toward God.” (Jesus of Nazareth; Pope Benedict XVI)
